Some chronic sufferers from rheumatism are human barometers. They can recognize by the growling pains in their tender joints and muscles the slightest increase of moisture in the air. Such a condition of super-sensitiveness is always attended with thin blood. The watery, poison-laden fluid that fills the arteries must be built up and purified before there can be any progress toward permanent recovery. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and the pure, rich blood eradicates rheumatism from the system and strengthens the body to resist any other attack. Send for our free booklet, "Building Up the Blood." DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

HAVE YOU RHEUMATISM, KIDNEY, LIVER OR BLADDER TROUBLE?

Pain or dull ache in the back is evidence of kidney trouble. It is Nature's timely warning to show you that the track of health is not clear.

Danger Signals.
If these danger signals are unheeded more serious results follow: Bright's disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble, may steal upon you.

The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable curative effect in the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine, you should have the best.

Lame Back.
Lame back is only one of many symptoms of kidney trouble. Other symptoms showing that you need Swamp-Root are, being obliged to pass water often during the day and to get up many times during the night. Inability to hold urine, smarting in passing, uric acid, headache, dizziness, indigestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, sometimes the heart acts badly, rheumatism, bloating, lack of ambition, maybe loss of flesh, sallow complexion.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.
Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who usually content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

DOCTORS DIVIDED ON FRIEDMANN.

TECHNIQUE IS CRITICIZED BY WASHINGTON SURGEONS.

Several Say They Are Not Impressed by His Manner, While Others Declare He Has Inspired Them With Confidence by His Knowledge of Tuberculosis.

(BY FEDERAL WIRELESS) LINE TO THE WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, April 15.—[Special Dispatch.] Dr. Friedrich Franz Friedmann did not make a favorable impression on some of the distinguished surgeons and physicians who attended his clinic here yesterday. They assert that his technique was bad and his speech gravely at fault. Furthermore, it is asserted by these critics that Dr. Friedmann's earlier contention that he could not impart to other physicians the method of administering his "remedy," because it would require six months' laboratory training, was not borne out by the clinic.

DR. CARR'S VIEW.
Dr. W. F. Carr, one of the most respected surgeons and physicians of this city, said of Dr. Friedmann's clinic: "He was not at all impressed with Dr. Friedmann's manner. If he has

Friend of Taft Made Defendant in Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollar Damage Suit by Californian.
[BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—A $150,000 libel suit was begun in the United States District Court today against John Hays Hammond, noted engineer and friend of former President Taft, by William Hammond, a civil engineer and prominent club man here.

The action is based upon a telegram said to have been sent by Col. Hammond to Jesse Lilienthal, of the Anglo and London-Paris National Bank here. It is said to have been connected with Hammond in a number of water rights projects.

A portion of the telegram as quoted in the petition of the suit refers to Hammond as "a man who frightens me with threats of publicity." He spent the great part of his time last year faking up reasons for additional compensation. Under no circumstances will I give him one cent more, but will show him up as a man who resorts to any means to extort money."

Hall alleges his credit and reputation have been damaged.

"POOR" FARMER HAD FORTUNE.
Brother of Man Recently Drowned Discovers Large Sum in the Bank Goes to Administrator.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] STOCKTON, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Made Mortensen, a farmer of this county, has been appointed administrator of his brother, Nels Mortensen, an aged fisherman, who was recently drowned and who was believed to be poverty-stricken. It has been learned that the dead man had $12,152.25 on deposit at a local bank, nearly one-half of which represents accrued interest. He saved the money by small deposits made at regular intervals for twenty years. The account was opened on May 25, 1876, and on July 1, 1896, after which no further deposits were made, he had $5293.63. The bank declares that the account is unusual. For the use of Mortensen's modest fortune the bank paid $2593.63. The entire estate goes to the administrator.

a cure for tuberculosis, as he claims, he would have done better to have given it to two or three of the larger institutions in this country which treat the disease and have had them investigated. By that procedure it could have been determined within six months probably, whether it was efficacious. The general medical profession, nor the public is in a position to judge of the merits of the remedy. Dr. Friedmann is running over the country from place to place, treating cases. Apparently he is trying to make money out of his discovery before the public has time to discover whether it is any good.

HAS MADE FRIENDS.
Dr. Friedmann made some friends here yesterday, however. Among these is Senator Hughes of New Jersey, who has announced that he will take steps to procure a license whereby Dr. Friedmann may administer his cure in the District of Columbia. This step, it is taken, will probably encounter bitter opposition as one of the leading medical advisers of the government has said today that if he had a child in the last stages of consumption he would not permit Dr. Friedmann to treat it with his vaccine.

On the other hand Dr. Cline Borden, who assisted Dr. Friedmann in selecting his patients, said: "I was very much impressed with Dr. Friedmann. I consider him one of the greatest diagnosticians. He selects his cases quickly and knows tuberculosis in its every form. He selected his cases in such a manner that he could treat all forms of the disease. The Cow, the Mule and the Thoroughbred

Naturally, this is in the nature of a fable, and like all good fables, it points a moral. The cow lay in her natural surroundings where all her ancestors had lived—and lazily chewed her cud. Contentment beamed from her unwinking eyes—contentment to wait for something to happen. Along came Mr. Mule. "Why don't you get up and go see the world?" he asked. "Because my ancestors did not go," replied the cow. "They accepted such treatment as they got HERE, and I am content." So Mr. Mule trotted up the road until he met a farmer. "Come live with me," said the farmer, ingratiatingly. "I'll give you a swell stable, latest style, and keep you well, for just a little work. All your friends will be proud of you and envy you." So the mule, without investigating other places, agreed. But the farmer ill-treated him in every way and got four times as much value from Mr. Mule as he gave in return. Mr. Mule finally ran away and met Mr. Thoroughbred Horse, who looked well groomed and satisfied with life. "How do you do it?" asked the Mule. "I get extra value for everything at reasonable cost," replied the Thoroughbred. "I am not content with the old-fashioned ideas of my fathers—neither do I jump at the first suggestion offered. I investigate and when I find where I can get the best value at a fair price I quickly come to terms." The MORAL is plain. Apply the fable to yourself—then remember we are the largest exclusive men's clothiers in the world, and that

The Right Fabrics

One of the most popular spring fabrics is the Shepherd Plaid. It's a crisp, clean cloth, with the right sparkle. Next to it is the bold white or dark chalk-stripe. Both of these fabrics come in a wide variety of colors and pattern schemes. And don't overlook the dull tans and gunmetal grays, rich browns and silver tone grays. In fact, we offer you the greatest variety of browns and grays imaginable, as well as some of the finest blue serges ever seen in the city.

Another Idea

The proprietor of a large furnishing house called to suggest a new idea. He said: "Why don't you do your own furnishing of that apartment house and sell or rent it furnished?" Another furnishing-house representative remarked: "You are an investment company, seeking to make good money for your stockholders, and I know of no better way than by furnishing and then renting or selling completed and ready for occupancy. You cannot make money easier or faster." When told the company planned to build five or more houses he added: "By all means, furnish and rent or sell completed. I'll take an interest in your company and help in every way possible."

Mrs. Kitty Phillips (left) and Marie Forester, arrested on suspicion of being blackmailers. They made things decidedly interesting for the officers who took them into custody, using a revolver and the contents of a china closet for the purpose.

WOMEN ARE ARRAIGNED.

Charged With Vagrancy. One of Two Prisoners Says She is a Literary Person.

Mrs. Kitty Phillips and Marie Forester, arrested by Police Sergeant Amman and Policeman Perry Monday night in an apartment at No. 937 West Sixth street, after a hand-to-hand fight with the arresting officers wherein one of the girls flourished a revolver and threatened to shoot, were arraigned yesterday in the University Court on vagrancy charges and their hearing set for Thursday.

Various reports to the effect that the young women had attempted to blackmail business men were noted about and it was hinted that a private detective agency had been retained to secure evidence against them, but if there is any truth in these reports it failed to materialize.

Mrs. Phillips, who says she was formerly in the real estate business in Portland, maintains that she is a literary person and depends for her living on what she writes. Her use of English, however, is not such as to bear out this statement. Her companion has been in Los Angeles several years.

Both women were reticent as to just how they managed to eke out a living in the expensively furnished suite where they made their home.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY.

The extravagant Graham "high line" scheme of aqueduct surplus distribution was buried yesterday under an avalanche of ballots cast by thousands of citizens outraged at the reaction upon their intelligence, and determined to settle once for all the question of water distribution to territory remote from the city and unlikely ever to come in.

The proposition to bond the city for $2,500,000 for the development of the harbor is carried by a margin far in excess of the required two-thirds, as is also the proposition to bond for $1,500,000 to build the necessary trunk line connecting the aqueduct proper with the municipal distributing system—bringing the water into the city.

The proposition to bond the city for $6,500,000 to build a dual system of power distribution went down, but made a stronger showing than other defeated propositions.

The proposition to bond the city for $2,000,000 to supply the San Fernando Valley with the aqueduct surplus was defeated by a substantial majority.

The municipal railway project is enthusiastically defeated, as are the propositions to bond for $1,000,000 for a new City Hall and for $600,000 to purchase the Normal School site.

Instead of piling up a great additional bonded indebtedness of $17,000,000, the voters with great wisdom and the exercise of civic foresight, carefully separated the wheat from the chaff, refrained from embarking the city upon a period of financial debauch, and voted $1,000,000 for the completion of those projects imperatively required to carry to a successful completion the great work of aqueduct and harbor building.

VICTORY OF INTEGRITY.

The result is directly in line with what The Times in common with Engineer Mulholland and citizens everywhere who realized the enormity of the attempt to exploit the municipality to the very verge of financial ruin, have been fighting for all through the campaign, and comes as a stinging rebuke to those who have advocated a surrender to the public enemies. It is a great victory, and demonstrates again the ability of the Los Angeles voters to meet any attack upon the integrity of their city.

The total vote approximates 55,000, and from the entire electorate it is evident that the "high-line" propaganda was without hope. With the receipt of the first returns, the sponsors threw up the sponge, and admitted that their dream was over.

The largest vote was polled on proposition No. 5, which provides for the continuing of work at the harbor. The opposition to this issue was negative, and scarcely a precinct in the city was against it. In San Pedro the vote was 498 to 55, and two precincts of Wilmington returned by four votes against an contested with 550 votes in favor of the greater harbor.

The "runner-up" is the proposed issuance of $1,500,000 bonds to enable Los Angeles to realize upon her conquest by building a trunk line to connect the water from the end of it above the San Fernando Valley, to the city. These two propositions joined in hand clear down the ballot, and when the count was finished but few votes separated them.

REVERSE DOWN HARD.

The reverse of the picture when the aqueduct was over revealed the "high-line" about the worst-defeated proposition the voters have ever been called upon to squelch, aside from the proposition to bond for $2,500,000 to build the necessary trunk line connecting the aqueduct proper with the municipal distributing system—bringing the water into the city.

The proposition to bond the city for $6,500,000 to build a dual system of power distribution went down, but made a stronger showing than other defeated propositions.

The proposition to bond the city for $2,000,000 to supply the San Fernando Valley with the aqueduct surplus was defeated by a substantial majority.

The municipal railway project is enthusiastically defeated, as are the propositions to bond for $1,000,000 for a new City Hall and for $600,000 to purchase the Normal School site.

NOT MANY WOMEN OUT.

The early vote presaged a total of at least 70,000, but after noon there was a distinct lessening of the march toward the polls.

There was little organized effort to get out the vote, which is only a few thousand less than that of the total vote was cast by them.

The voting was quietly carried on in all parts of the city and but few violations of the election law were reported.

ELECTRIC STATEMENT.

John B. Miller, president of Southern California Edison Company, in answer to the appeal of the power bonds last night, said:

The failure of the power bonds to carry, convinces me of the truth of what I have always maintained, that is, that the American people, not only in Los Angeles, but elsewhere, when they thoroughly understand the merits of a question, always insist

CAMERA BROKEN; OWNER BRUISED; WARRANT OUT.

APPEARENTLY ignoring the childish impulse which prompted Clark Carson, a young real-estate agent, to essay a romantic, if following what Quixotic, defense of a young girl who apparently neither needed nor wanted defense, a materialistic court yesterday issued a warrant for the young man's arrest, charging him with unprovoked assault and battery upon a newspaper photographer. The fact that Carson's name was mentioned by Mrs. Sude E. Rene in a petition to the juvenile court charging him with having contributed to the delinquency of her daughter, Miss Adelaide, is thought to have spurred him on to more valorous deeds in an effort to prevent the pretty French girl from carrying out her promise to pose for her picture. The complaint and warrant were issued yesterday by Justice Williams in the University court upon the representations of Frank B. Wilson, the photographer, who was struck on the mouth and had to be taken to the Receiving Hospital for treatment following his encounter with the irate Carson. According to the story told by the unnamed girl, she had prepared her camera to take her photograph in the harbor or on the beach, and had posed his person and proceeded to demolish the offending camera and the even more objectionable photographer.

The troubles of young Carson, however, appear not to have ended with the warrant for his arrest. With the announcement later yesterday evening that Earl Rogers, Frank Dominguez and J. Giesler, attorneys, had been retained as special counsel to assist in the prosecution, was the further statement that a civil suit for damages will be filed today. Bail for Carson was fixed at $150. When told last night of the warrant for his arrest he refused to discuss the case or his probable defense to the charge.

William Mulholland, The brave, competent, faithful engineer of the aqueduct, to whom the people of Los Angeles gave yesterday a magnificent vote of confidence.

Other Ways.

MULHOLLAND READY WITH A WATER PLAN.

"WE'LL go ahead with the Frankline line now and we'll have to find other means of disposing of the surplus water," said Engineer Mulholland last night.

"As to what other means that shall be I shall not now say a word. It is up to the Board of Public Works. But I have completed a plan. It will be to the board first—if they want it. I don't think they'll want it. However, the situation is not given to them to turn it down."

"The people misunderstand some of these things they have voted on because they are not given to them clearly—with precision. I think the public had an idea they had traveled in hand clear down the ballot, and when the count was finished but few votes separated them."

"I have too often stated my attitude in regard to supplying water outside the city to go into it again. I am against the very principle of the thing. The West End and San Fernando valley never should get water until they pay for their lines. And I know they didn't want it unless they paid for them. The San Fernando Valley is no better than any other valley."

"The people have spoken loud and emphatically. They were wise in voting as they did on the San Fernando water works proposition and on the San Dimas 'High Line.' There is a better way of doing it. Let these outsiders stand the expense for these things themselves. We bonded ourselves to go clear to the Owens River for water. Let them go to the end of the aqueduct and make such terms as they can for the water—let them take the risk, if they think it a risk, of this cost of the work."

"Proposition No. 1 on the ballot would have carried had it been drafted properly. It should have been divided in two—separate votes for development and distribution. The people should have their chance to vote both ways. They would have carried a proposition to generate power but they did not feel they could vote 'yes' on it when with it they had to carry the distributing plan."

"The city should bring the water to the gates here and turn it over to the companies for distribution. The water would still be controlled by the city, just as though we were disposing of it for we could fix the price."

"I believe emphatically, in frankly putting these things before the people and giving them a chance to express themselves, to let them know why they are mortgaging their homes by bonding the city."

"In voting the works for conducting water to the city for domestic and irrigating purposes the people saw the clear light."

"So far as the harbor and the other propositions go they are out of my line of public expression. I voted for the harbor bonds. And I voted for the Normal School bonds because my wife wanted me to."

The Test of Law.

STATE VERSUS CITY IN FINAL HARBOR BATTLE.

Supreme Court of California Hears Powerful Plea for Right of Los Angeles to Control the San Pedro Tidelands, Upon Which Future of Port Depends—Expect Decision Within Sixty Days.

HAS the State of California sovereign power over the tidelands within her borders, and can she alienate such lands to private persons and corporations to the preclusion of the development of a great harbor? Or do the tidelands remain the property of the people, subject to the rights of navigation, and available for the greatest development for the benefit of the greatest number?

This, in a nutshell, is the question which was argued yesterday before the Supreme Court of California sitting in bank in the Bullard block chambers. It involves $10,000,000 worth of tidelands in the vicinity of Wilmington, and upon its outcome depends the city's control of the inner harbor and its development.

The decision in the lower court sustained the city's claim to the 2000 or more acres in every particular. An appeal was taken by the defendants and respondents, numbering many claimants, and chief of whom are the Southern Pacific and the Banning Company. It is a rehearing upon some points of appeal which the court listened yesterday, and which will determine whether Los Angeles will control two-thirds of the frontage of the inner harbor or be limited to the six-acre and the few thousand feet of frontage which is uncontested.

The present case is a rehearing of the decision of the lower court, and there are varied points involved, but practically all are embraced under the proposition at large, i. e., that the city owns the tidelands within the Southern Pacific and the Banning Company. The case is an appeal from the decision of Judge Bordwell of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county. A determinate opinion is looked for from the higher court within sixty days, and this decision will mean to the city a great municipal inner harbor or an inner harbor controlled by private interests.

CRUX OF CASE.

James A. Anderson, special counsel for the city, devoted a large part of his allotted time during the afternoon session of the court to a discussion of the incorporation of the city of Wilmington, under the act of 1872, and the effect of such legislative incorporation upon the tidelands grants, constitutionally inhibited within two miles of an incorporated city. It was argued by the appellants that the incorporation was never effective because it was not followed by organization, and that the act therefore became a dead letter. This contention Anderson denies, arguing that a legislative enactment cannot be superseded by a failure to take advantage of its provisions, and the fact that, except in a few isolated instances, the tide-land grants were all within the two-mile limit.

The attorney for the city effectively urged the doctrine of public right. "In cases of doubt," he said, "the public interest is of the first consideration, and the construction must be the most liberal possible to a full conservation of these rights."

Anderson reviewed the history of the tide-land litigation and the status of the disputed territory long before it was determined by the Legislature and the granting to Los Angeles in 1871. Banning made his first application in 1844 under the act of 1863, and in 1877 an amended application was filed, but no payment was made and no rights accrued, the attorney said.

HANDFUL OF CINCINNATI.

The main points made by the special counsel are the status of the tidelands, which he contends are absolutely fixed by legislative enactment, and which place the control in the city, the fact that the constitution prohibits the grant of tidelands within two miles of an incorporated city, that when the action was commenced both Wilmington and San Pedro were incorporated, and that the provision reserving them for public use is not affected by the partition of the city.

Compromise.

WILL OF HUNT VALID; PRUNED.

Hotel Magnate's Estate Is Finally Settled.

Wife He Disinherited Gets Quarter of a Million.

Angelus Is Ordered Sold by the Executors.

The tangles in the settlement of the case of the late John W. Hunt, owner of the Angelus Hotel and proprietor in half a dozen other States, who died December 11, 1910, broken-hearted, because of the alleged elopement of his beautiful young wife with a Russian prince, have at last been straightened out. The local Probate Court received the papers yesterday in a final judgment in the Supreme Court of New York confirming an agreement reached there between all of the various claimants. The settlement calls for the sale of the Angelus at $1,000,000. Its articles were filed by Attorney Bradner W. Lee.

The wishes of the millionaire hotel owner as to the disposition of his vast estate are to be carried out only in part. The young woman whom he divorced and disinherited will receive $250,000. Certain heirs will have distributed among them $350,000, which Hunt had intended should go into a trust fund to establish in Georgia an orphan's asylum to be known as the John W. Hunt Memorial. The quarter of a million which is to be paid to the divorced wife also comes from the proposed charity fund.

Since the money given to Mrs. Hunt and the additional amount distributed to heirs are both to be taken from the residue of the estate, left after the payment of the debts, the settlement in the will, it was possible for the New York agreement to be reached without violating the letter of the will.

WILL DECLARED VALID.

Both the will and a codicil which has been a subject of dispute are declared to be valid in the agreement. By violating the spirit of the provision of the clause of the will relating to the $1,000,000 trust fund, expected by Hunt to be used for his memorial, the latter is cut down to about $450,000. Mrs. Hunt and other claimants had set forth that the amount designated by Hunt to be used for charity was more than one-third of the estate. The laws of California and other States where Hunt owned property provide that not more than one-third of an estate may go to charity in cases where there are legitimate heirs.

This provision of the New York agreement refers to the disposition of the property of the Hunt estate in Los Angeles.

"The executors shall sell the Angelus Hotel property in the State of California, as soon as a purchaser can be found, at the price of $1,000,000. Should this price not be secured the executors shall have as long as two years, if needed, to sell at the best figure obtainable. Out of the proceeds of said sale the executors shall distribute $350,000 among the heirs of John W. Hunt, deceased, in proportion to their respective rights, said heirs and amounts each is to receive being as follows:

"Bunyan Lucas, half-brother, $175,000; the following children of Henry D. Lucas, deceased half-brother: $25,000 each; Henry Gaillard, Joseph Timothy, Ambrose, Robert Theodore, John Paul, Lois and Rosamond Lucas."

It is provided that the above mentioned heirs are to be paid 5 per cent. on their respective shares from February 20, 1913, until the final settlement is made. The interest money is to come from the income from the Angelus.

The Angelus was opened December 1, 1901. There are 250 rooms in the building. The property fronts 129 feet on Spring street and 135 feet on Fourth street. Loomis Brothers hold a twenty-year lease on the hotel, running from January, 1907. The rental is $50,000. While the Hunt estate has been in litigation the rent has accumulated to the amount of $135,000. It is deposited in a joint bank.

THE HUNT ESTATE.

Aside from the hotel property in Los Angeles, the Hunt estate includes the Southern Hotel, valued at $250,000, in Dallas, Tex.; $27,700 worth of real estate in New York; farm land in Potomac, Md., valued at $25,000; valued at $7500; $40,000 worth of property in Washington, D. C.; property in Jacksonville, Fla., held at $124,000, and stocks and bonds.

The hotel in Dallas and $50,000 cash was left to Robert Lee Lucas, a nephew who lives in Dallas and is one of the two executors of the estate. This bequest was made in a codicil, the validity of which it is alleged was questioned by John E. Harris of Jacksonville, Fla., the other executor. The following other bequests were made:

Bunyan Lucas, $1000; John Bunyan Lucas, Dallas, $1000; Robert Lee Lucas, $25,000; Charles F. Lucas, Atlanta, $5; Henry Gaillard Lucas, Ft. Worth, Tex., $10,000; John Paul Lucas, Charlotte, N. C., $10,000; Ambrose Lucas, Highlands, N. J., $10,000; Theodore Lucas, Charlotte, $10,000; Lois Lucas, Charlotte, $20,000; Rosamond Lucas, Charlotte, $20,000; Ruth Peake, Parry Sound, Ontario, $5000.

At the time of Hunt's death his nearest relatives were a half-brother and a nephew. His end was hastened, it was reported, by grief over the actions of his young wife in her alleged romantic elopement with Prince Alexander Tcherednikoff, cousin of the Czar of Russia. The episode resulted in Hunt's obtaining a divorce from his wife. At the time of the millionaire's death the young woman was trying to have the divorce set aside. Later she instituted court action in New York in which she alleged that the divorce was illegally obtained. This was the claim with which she obtained a settlement of $250,000.

Remarkable Bargains

in Pianos and Players

Some New—Some Used—

The word "Bargains" advised in this particular instance it means not merely any instrument, but a good instrument at a low price. Every Piano or Player is in guaranteed condition—there are scores to select from on our list. We've had many delightful purchases during the last few months, and a number of slightly used instruments taken in exchange on new Pianos and Players have been made in this special stock. You'll find some makes among them—your favorite instrument, perhaps—at a real low price—and on terms you can easily meet.

Uprights	Players	Grands
$100, $125, $150, $200 and Up—	$275, $350, $450, $500 and Up—	$450, $550, $575, $600 and Up—

If you've been wanting a Player Piano, this is indeed your opportunity to get an excellent instrument at a bargain. No room here for details. Come in, let us show you these Players and demonstrate them for you. They're mechanically perfect, easy of operation, excellent in tone. The fact that they are slightly used is responsible for the big reductions.

Among these slightly used Grands are several instruments that have been used merely in Concert or by visiting Artists or Tourists. Makes include Steinway, Krnisch, Bach, Bohmer, Kurtzmann, and Chickering. The Pianos are all in guaranteed condition, and some of them can scarcely be told from new. If you have been wanting a fine, high grade Grand, here is your opportunity.

$5, $6, $8 to $10 Monthly on Uprights and Grands; $8 to $15 on Players—

ASKS COUNCIL TO HIT HIM.

Reel Perced at Wheeler's Bond Attitude.

Union President Says It's Misapprehension.

Capt. Milner Considered by Some as Successor.

Without discussion, other than a statement by Councilman Anderson that the Council should not go into a proper hearing, the Council today without comment resolved to remove the chief executive to consider the advisability of removing the President of the Board of Public Utilities, Frederick F. Wheeler, president of the Board of Public Utilities, from his position as president of the board. The resolution was introduced by Councilman Anderson and was adopted by a vote of 10 to 2. The resolution states that the Council is of the opinion that the removal of the President of the Board of Public Utilities is a matter which should be decided by the people of the city and not by the Council. The resolution also states that the Council is of the opinion that the removal of the President of the Board of Public Utilities is a matter which should be decided by the people of the city and not by the Council.

The Mayor stated yesterday that he had advised Wheeler and to publish an explanation of his position and that he thought it "unwise" for Wheeler to have done so. The Mayor also stated that he had refused to state what he should take on the resolution sent him, declaring that he was going to get hysterical over the matter. The Mayor also stated that he had refused to state what he should take on the resolution sent him, declaring that he was going to get hysterical over the matter.

The resolution introduced by Councilman Anderson, which the Council did not adopt, reads as follows: "Resolved, That the Council of the City of Los Angeles, in view of the fact that the President of the Board of Public Utilities, Frederick F. Wheeler, has been aggressively active in the private power companies, and in view of the fact that the Council is of the opinion that the removal of the President of the Board of Public Utilities is a matter which should be decided by the people of the city and not by the Council, do hereby resolve that the Council is of the opinion that the removal of the President of the Board of Public Utilities is a matter which should be decided by the people of the city and not by the Council."

Today's Beauty Recipes

By Mme. D'Mille.
"The electric needle for the removal of superfluous hair is both painful and expensive. A quick, safe and sure way to remove wild hairs is to apply a little powdered delatone mixed with water. Just cover the hairs with this paste for a minute or two, wipe off, wash the skin and the hairs will be gone.
"Spring colds are often more stubborn than colds brought on by winter exposure. Mother's Salve will break up an ordinary cold in head or chest over night. It is easy to use, quick to act, and relieves catarrh, croup, sore throat.
"The Vaucaire home treatment is so successful in developing the bust because it accelerates the blood circulation, and builds up the underlying tissue. Make a syrup with 1½ cupsful of sugar and a pint of hot water. Dissolve an ounce of gallol in this syrup and take two teaspoonfuls before meals.
"To keep the skin fair, fresh and smooth, apply in the morning a lotion made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. It will not rub off or show like powder, and prevents the growth of hair. Mayatone quickly corrects dark, sallow and blotchy complexions.
"You can recommend Mother's Shampoo to your husband and he will thank you for it. Many men who shave themselves do not shampoo frequently enough. Dandruff, falling hair and baldness are caused by a parasite, and Mother's Shampoo removes these parasites. It restores dry, brittle and faded hair to a glossy, fluffy condition, and keeps the scalp healthy.
"To darken eyebrows and make them grow longer and more evenly, apply plain pyroxin with the finger tips. Pyroxin applied to the lash roots makes them grow long and lovely. It does not coarsen but makes them soft and silky."—Advertisement.

I wanted my hands free and my views known in order that I could be of the greatest possible service to our city, and I accordingly wrote an answer as definite and candid as I was capable of. A copy of this letter was sent to the two newspapers above mentioned and the committee named, and, following the course we always pursue in this office, copies were given to the representatives of the other newspapers.
"The Times was the only newspaper to publish my letter in full. I don't think any of the other papers made any reference to it whatever. This was published Saturday morning last, and Saturday noon I left the city for the mountains and returned Sunday evening after dark and then discovered for the first time, in reading the morning paper, that my letter had been edited by somebody and those portions cut out which I should much prefer to have had published, and the balance was published as an advertisement by somebody, presumably representing the power companies. This, of course, was done without my knowledge and consent. They probably had a legal right to do so, but I confess to a considerable sense of annoyance and irritation in having my letter edited, as it was, before publication, as it has placed me in a false light before the people.
"I am perfectly willing to go before the people as a candidate for the Council with this statement of facts. If that is the kind of man desired in the Council, then I shall hope to be defeated.
"In my present position I have brought to bear such intelligence, business ability and integrity as I possess. The results I am perfectly willing to leave to the public and those who have come in contact with this office to judge.
"I have endeavored to stand for the best interests of the people and to deal fairly with the corporations. I am, and have been, unwilling to play the gallery by attacks on corporations or to deal unfairly or unjustly with them.
"I have considered this board, of which I am president, to be a semi-judicial body placed under the responsibility of endeavoring to find the just, fair and equitable solution of the problems that have come before us. The measure of my success must be judged by others."

The Czar's Private Car.
[Harper's Weekly:] The last word in the matter of luxury seems to have been said in the furnishing of the Czar's private car. It is, in the first place, dynamite proof, and owing to its weight it could not run on the major part of the European lines.
The car is furnished with a chapel, a library, a bathroom, a drawing-room and a bedroom, besides a kitchen and dining-room. The Czar always travels with one particular chef, a man now well along in years, who served his father and for a while the grandfather of the present German Emperor.

Family Cough Syrup

Cures Any Cough in Five Hours. NEW PRESCRIPTION HERE.
Here is given the most effective cough prescription known to the medical world. It is a mild laxative, too, and this is what a body needs when suffering with cough and cold on the lungs. A cough or cold indicates poisons in the system, causing inflammation and congestion. Nearly all cough syrups relieve, but make the trouble worse by their stimulating effects. This prescription not only relieves quickly, but it cures any cough that it cures! Get one-half ounce fluid wild cherry bark, one ounce compound essence cardui and three ounces syrup white pine compound. Mix in a bottle. Take for acute cough or bronchitis twenty drops every half hour for four hours. Then one-half to one teaspoonful three or four times daily. Give children less according to age. A few hours' treatment will cure and bring the throat and lungs of all but consumptive. Cut this out and give it to some friend who may need it to be saved from an early death by consumption. Can't Get Away From It

Is it possible to nourish, strengthen and Rebuild the Brain by Food?

Every man who thinks uses up part of the brain each day. Why doesn't it all disappear and leave an empty skull in say a month of brain work? Because the man rebuilds each day.

If he builds a little less than he destroys, brain fog and nervous prostration result sure. If he builds back a little more each day, the brain grows stronger and more capable. That also is sure. Where does man get the material to rebuild his brain? Is it from air, sky or the ice of the Arctic sea? When you come to think about it, the rebuilding material must be in the food and drink.

That also is sure.

Are the brain rebuilding materials found in all food? In a good variety but not in suitable proportion in all.

To illustrate: we know bones are made largely of lime and magnesium taken from food; therefore to make healthy bone structure we must have food containing these things. We would hardly feed only sugar and fat to make healthy bone structure in a growing child.

If we desired to keep brain strong and healthy we would use food known to contain the things Nature uses for the purpose.

True, Nature provides these elements in a variety of edible things. We submit the following facts for those who care to know something definite on the subject:

Analysis of brain by an unquestionable authority, Geoghegan, shows of Mineral Salts, Phosphoric Acid and Potash combined (Phosphate of Potash) 2.91 per cent. of the total, 5.33 of all mineral Salts.

This is over one-half.

Beaunis, another authority, shows "Phosphoric Acid combined" and Potash 73.44 per cent. from a total of 101.07.

Considerable more than one-half of Phosphate of Potash.

Analysis of Grape-Nuts shows Potassium and Phosphorus (which join and make Phosphate of Potash) is considerably more than one-half of all the mineral salts in the food.

Dr. Geo. W. Carey, an authority on the constituent elements of the body, says: "The gray matter of the brain is controlled entirely by the inorganic cell-salt, Potassium Phosphate (Phosphate of Potash). This salt unites with albumen and by the addition of oxygen creates nerve fluid or the gray matter of the brain. Of course, there is a trace of other salts and other organic matter in nerve fluid, but Potassium Phosphate is the chief factor and has the power within itself to attract, by its own law of affinity, all things needed to manufacture the elixir of life."

Further on he says: "The beginning and end of the matter is to supply the lacking principle, and in molecular form, exactly as Nature furnishes it in vegetables, fruits and grain. To supply deficiencies—this is the only law of cure."

The natural conclusion is that if Phosphate of Potash is the needed mineral element in brain and you use food which does not contain it, you have brain fog because its daily loss is not supplied.

On the contrary, if you eat food known to be rich in this element, you place before the life forces that which nature demands for brain-building.

Mind does not work well on a brain that is broken down by lack of nourishment.

A peaceful and evenly poised mind is necessary to good digestion.

Worry, anxiety, fear, hate, etc., etc., directly interfere with or stop the flow of Pepsin, the digestive juice of the mouth, and also interfere with the flow of the digestive juices of stomach and pancreas.

Therefore, the mental state of the individual has much to do (more than suspected) with digestion.

Brain is made of Phosphate of Potash

as the principal Mineral Salt, added to albumen and water.

Grape-Nuts contain that element as more than one-half of all its mineral salts. We must remember that nearly 95% of the brain is composed of water and albumen, but the little worker Phosphate of Potash must be present in order to blend the more bulky materials into usable form.

So with Grape-Nuts. The Phosphate of Potash is more than one-half of all the mineral salts, but the total volume of those elements is exceedingly small as compared with the greater bulk of other food elements contained in Grape-Nuts.

We should also remember that this small ingredient should not be put into the food in the form it might come from a chemist, because man cannot produce these elements in as digestible a form as Old Mother Nature, when she puts them in the wheat and barley from which Grape-Nuts is made.

A healthy brain is important, if one would "do things" in this world.

A man who sneers at "Mind" sneers at the best and least understood part of himself. That part which some folks believe links us to the Infinite.

Mind asks for a healthy brain upon which to act, and Nature has defined a way to make a healthy brain and renew it day by day as it is used up from work of the previous day.

Nature's way to rebuild is by the use of food which supplies the things required. Brain rebuilding material is certainly found in a very natural and perfect form in Century.

At last! At last a diving queen has been found. This time by the Century Theater's manager, Miss "Baby" Leroy is the young lady's name, and she entered the Century chorus an unknown. She will give an exhibition of her skill as a high and fancy diver this evening. In addition Miss Bobbie Deane and Miss Flossie Wilson also will appear.

Clune's.

The latest authentic pictures of the Dayton flood and the Omaha disaster are being shown this week at Clune's Broadway Theater in the Pathé Weekly. The pictures show practically every phase of each of these disasters, and the Dayton ones are especially interesting. They will be here for today and tomorrow only, having been secured by special arrangement for W. H. Clune and the Pathé producers for three days only. They are being run in conjunction with an exceptionally fine bill of first-run pictures.

At Clune's Fifth-Street Theater unusual interest is being manifested in the two-reel Selig comedy drama, "The Old Elephant," because of the fact that this picture was made at the local Selig studio at the Los Angeles wild animal farm, with Toddlers, a very famous elephant, which has been seen in many of the local parades as the stellar role in the production.

Extra Matinees.

The demand for seats for the final week of "The Tik-Tok Man of Oz" now attracting capacity audiences at the Majestic Theater, is so great that yesterday it was found necessary to announce a second special matinee performance of the piece.

Last night the announcement of a special Friday matinee was forthcoming and the sale of seats for this special performance will open this morning.

SOME BRIGHT LINES FROM "TIK-TOK"

Here are some of Frank Baum's quips and epigrams that enliven the dialogue of "The Tik-Tok Man of Oz," now in its third and last week at the Majestic.

Sergeant Files: It's better to suffer remorse than to miss a good time."

Polychrome: My home, Ruggedo, is far up in the skies, while yours is far down in the earth caverns.

Ruggedo: That doesn't matter. Among these mortals, some husbands and wives are farther apart than that.

Files: We mortals pay many a forfeit just for fun."

Shaggy: Tik-Tok can't fight; he's only a bunch of old iron.

Betsy: Yes, but he's scrap iron.

General Fuzz: A soldier's chief duty is to win the heart of a woman.

TIGERS SLAUGHTERED IN BATTLE WITH WOLVES.

Wolverton's Men Hit Ball Hard and Run Wild on the Bases—Baum Draws Bench Sentence in Fourth for Crabbing; Griffin Finished Game—Homer by Litchi and Triple by Hoop Only Good Bloos.

Wolverton placed the brand "Wolves" on the Sacramento team and the Sacramento team had a polite way of saying that the "Wolves" batted clean around in this inning. After Blum had been embroiled on a roller in Hallman, Stroud hit to center, Blum smashed one to the same locality, and ran to second on Melton's futile throw to head Stroud off at third. Stroud was walked, filling the bases. The idea being to prime things for a forecourt or a double. O'Rourke mildly popped to Hoop. Baum walked Kenworthy, forcing Stroud in with a run. "Spider" advised Finney to buy a magnifying glass, and Finney saved Hogan the trouble of removing him.

Griffin, who had been warming up on the sidelines, entered the arena with the air of a man about to face a grizzly bear. Score: Sacramento, 13; Venice, 2.

The Wolves whaled the combined offerings of Baum and Griffin fourteen times from the home plate, and slipped around the bases like frightened jackrabbits. They consumed an even half-dozen cushions, and most of the lot figured in the run-setting.

Baum was selected to work against his former mates, but his delivery was an open book, and the only thing that prevented him from getting knocked out of the box was the fact that he drew a bench sentence for crabbing in the fourth.

WOLVERTON OBJECTS.

The bases were full, and Baum offered no protest when Finney waived him to the bench. Harry Wolverton was the only one to remonstrate. He liked the "Spider's" pitching, and reproached Finney for firing him.

Sacramento got to Baum for one run in the first, three in the third, and had scored one and loaded the bases when the skids were placed under him in the fourth. J. Linton Griffin fell heir to this unhappy state of affairs, and four runs were scored before he could quell the disturbance.

For the next two innings J. Linton had smooth sailing, but got maced for four runs in the seventh.

Ralph Stroud was rapped for nine hits, but Hoop's triple in the third, scoring Hayles, and a homer by Litchi in the sixth were the only blows which counted.

WOLVES PLAY BALL.

"P-I-a-y b-a-s-e-b-a-l-l," bellowed Umpire Finney at precisely 2:30 o'clock.

The Wolves obeyed instructions to the letter. The game was hardly a minute old when Shinn popped a triple to right center. He was held third on Moran's out. Litchi to Patterson. O'Rourke rammed the ball to right for one base, and Shinn scampered in. For stole second and Kenworthy walked. Tennant dropped a single in center, filling the bases. Things were looking all to the good, when Lewis forced O'Rourke at the plate on a fast assist by Hallman. Dolly Stark watched three strikes fly by. For the Tigers to extricate themselves from a tangle like that with so little damage caused Hope to freshen up a bit.

But she wilted in the third. Baum fanned Moran and walked O'Rourke. Kenworthy singled to right center. Hallman took Bayless's throw, and sought to nail Kenworthy, who had over-run first. His sling was wide of the mark. O'Rourke scoring and Kenworthy running to third. Tennant tripled to right center, scoring Kenworthy, and tripped over the tureen on Lewis's long lift to Melton.

THREE HURT IN ACCIDENT.

Springville Man, With Two Companions, Pinned Under Auto Near Exeter—Romeo Gets Awful Shock.

PORTERVILLE, April 15.—Only the fortunate appearance of Dox Maxon of Exeter, who happened along the road in his auto, saved Will Adler of Springville from a horrible death when he was pinned beneath an overturned auto on the Tulare river road to Springville, late last evening.

Orville Markie and Lige Cole, who were with Adler in the machine when it left the road, were painfully injured. Cole, Markie and Adler were returning from a party in Frazier Valley. The steering gear on their machine jammed and they were unable to more than partially clear the road.

Adler was pinned beneath the body of the car. The side of the tonneau fell across the back of Adler's neck and he was barely able to gasp out that he was being choked to death. His companions in their confusion were unable to do more than partially clear Adler and they were almost exhausted when Maxon appeared. With his assistance the car was propped up and all three men were extricated. Adler is badly hurt. He was taken to his home near Springville.

SWAIN FAINTED.

It was too much of a shock for Antonio Lopez today when County Clerk Maxon appeared. With his assistance the car was propped up and all three men were extricated. Adler is badly hurt. He was taken to his home near Springville.

Lopez is a ranch hand in the Woodlake district and, being ignorant of American ways, he neglected to secure the necessary written permission from his fair intended's parents. Clerk Coburn suspected something of the sort when Lopez appeared alone and the first question of the official was as to the girl's age. When the facts were learned the disastrous news was communicated to Tony with its almost fatal result.

Owing to Tony's condition the name of the young woman could not be learned. There was some curiosity on this point, since it was assumed she must be something of a beauty for her temporary loss to occasion such an effect.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.
The City Council yesterday adopted the ordinance creating four municipal public market places and providing for a superintendent and attendants and fixing their salaries. The four markets are to be opened on Saturday, May 5.

An ordinance was passed yesterday providing for salaries of $150 a month for members of the Harbor Commission, beginning with the opening of the next fiscal year.

PROVIDES FOR CURB MARKETS.

COUNCIL PASSES ORDINANCE WITH EMERGENCY CLAUSE.

Opening Day Set for First Saturday in May and Four Locations Will Be Used as Experiment—Pat Job Created for Master, Who's Not Yet Selected.

The ordinance creating a municipal market department and providing for a superintendent and attendants, and fixing their salaries, was passed by the City Council yesterday. This ordinance bears the emergency clause and will go into effect as soon as it is signed by the Mayor and has one publication.

This ordinance is in conformity with the recommendations of the Public Market Committee, which has been working on the project of curb markets for several months, as a possible means for reducing the cost of living.

The committee has set Saturday, May 5, as the opening date for the four curb markets proposed. A market master has not yet been secured. This office will pay a salary of $150 a month. The official will have charge of all municipal markets established in Los Angeles. As it is proposed to start with market days only three times a week, this offers a chance for some one.

The ordinance designates four locations as municipal market places. One is at Calhoun and Selma avenues, in Hollywood; another is at Main and Broadway, at the intersection of the East Side; the third is at Twelfth and Georgia streets, and the fourth is at Broad and Fourth streets, Boyle Heights. Each of these markets will be open for the use of the public on Mondays and Wednesdays from 8 o'clock a.m. to 2 o'clock p.m., and on Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. They will be open to the use of any person who desires to bring food products, flowers or nursery stock, without any charge, being made therefor.

Notices are to be issued at once by the Public Market Committee of the opening date, and advertisements of the project are to be placed in the newspapers of Los Angeles and adjoining counties.

In connection with the adoption of the ordinance making these provisions, the license ordinance was amended yesterday by the City Council, so as to exempt from the payment of a license producers of food products, flowers or nursery stock who may desire to offer these products for sale within the city.

The street department will be asked to provide men and teams for cleaning up the market sites after each day's activities, and the superintendent of the market is authorized to employ not to exceed four attendants at the rate of $2.50 per day for the time actually employed.

If the four markets thus established prove successful other sites will be opened as rapidly as practicable.

Would Route Long Run.

Councilman McKendall introduced a resolution at yesterday's Council session, requesting the Los Angeles Railway Corporation to reroute its Main-street-Main-street-Garvan line by way of Spring street for its entire distance, from Ninth to Temple streets, thus aiding in relief of congestion on Main street and requiring the railway to operate through cars on the York boulevard line on Sunday afternoons.

McKendall stated that the people of the York boulevard district had contributed $10,000 to the construction of this line and were entitled to through service, as the operation of a short run there mitigated against the development of the district.

The subject was referred to the Board of Public Utilities after President Wheeler had been called into the Council session for discussion of the merits.

Will Open the Way.

When the proceedings for the paving of a portion of North Los Angeles street were before the City Council yesterday, the subject of paving the streets around the old Plaza was introduced. The project was deferred in order that the proceedings for the opening and widening of San Pedro street to the Plaza may be completed first. This, it was stated, will be accomplished soon, as within two months the condemnation proceedings will be completed. This opens the way for the extension of the yellow car line service over San Pedro street to the Plaza and a connection with Main street.

Two More Comfort Stations.

Councilman Whiffen is sponsor for a movement to secure an appropriation in the next budget for the construction of two more public comfort stations in convenient locations for the downtown district. The Council yesterday sent Whiffen's request to the Budget Committee.

Salaries for Commissioners.

With the beginning of the next fiscal year, July 1, members of the Harbor Commission will receive salaries of $250 per month. The City Council so decided yesterday, when it instructed the City Auditor to prepare the necessary ordinance. The Mayor recently asked the Council to fix the salaries of members of this commission, at $250 per month, the same as those of the members of the Board of Public Works.

Mayor Wants Delegation.

The Mayor is looking for delegates to represent Los Angeles at two important gatherings. He wants to secure the attendance of from three to five delegates to represent the city at the National Conference of Charities and Correction, to be held in Seattle on July 5 to 12, inclusive, and the same number of delegates to attend the fourth International Congress on School Hygiene, to meet in Buffalo, N. Y., August 25 to 30. The Mayor yesterday received from

TEN MILLIONS NEEDED TO RUN CITY A YEAR?

THE total of the demands which the various departments of the city government make upon the treasury for expenses during the next fiscal year, a schedule of which was submitted by the City Auditor to the City Council yesterday, is $10,001,854. The estimated income is placed by the City Auditor at $4,641,854, less $900,000 of the reserve fund, making the amount that will have to be deducted from the department demands, $5,360,000.

The allowance for all departments at the making of the last fiscal budget was $6,821,794. The excess of demands just made over the amount allowed in the last budget is $4,160,048. In any event, the city will have to make provision for the following amounts, for the following departments: Municipal railway payment, $238,576; Normal School site payment, $100,000; pensions for the fire and police department, estimated at $30,000; increase in salary and service of the fire and police departments, $20,000; additions to the police force, twenty new men, $20,000; library, $14,000; increase in salaries of Councilmen, $10,800; increase in salary of City Attorney, $1000; increase in salary of Mayor, $300, making a total of $433,375.

The estimates furnished the City Auditor for submission to the Budget Committee gives a summary of outlays at $5,601,814; salaries, $3,565,493; expenses, $1,244,322. The estimated income is divided as follows: Departmental receipts, $220,000; license, $750,000; franchise, $45,000; interest, $50,000; delinquent taxes, $55,000; or a total of $1,220,000, while $200,000 of the reserve will bring this to $1,420,000. A 1% tax rate, which would be 7 per cent increase, would not $1,540,000, bringing the total estimated income to $2,960,000.

MacLae Wilson, treasurer of the Ohio Flood Relief Commission, a letter of acknowledgment of the $500 of acknowledgment of the City Council for relief work in Ohio. This letter says: "On behalf of Gov. Cox and the people of Ohio permit me to express my sincere appreciation and thanks for your very generous and prompt response in behalf of our people in their time of need."

City Hall Briefs.

An ordinance was passed yesterday prohibiting the keeping of inflammable materials or refuse matter in the cellars or basements of hotels, restaurants, apartments, apartment-houses, lodging or rooming-houses. The Fire Chief and Commission recommended this legislation because some of the worst recent fires have originated from such sources.

The City Planning Commission was granted permission by the City Council yesterday to occupy the suite of rooms in the Temple block heretofore used by the Municipal News.

An ordinance was passed yesterday, taking effect in thirty days, providing that a charge of 10 cents per load be imposed by the city for sand or gravel taken from the Los Angeles River bed between Buena Vista street and Sixth street. It is estimated that this will produce a revenue of about $16,000 a year and will offset the cost of maintenance to the river and embankments along the river.

The Council decided yesterday to instruct the City Clerk to issue with sample ballots heretofore slips showing the date of election and the voting place of the voter to whom the ballot is mailed.

JURY REFUSES TO BELIEVE IT.

DECIDES ALIENATION SUIT IN FAVOR OF SHOWMAN.

Stories of Circus Owner's Alleged Kissing and Hugging Stunts Evidently Discredited—Stepfather Accused of Misappropriation. Other Court News.

Fred A. Barlow's $100,000 alienation suit against Al G. Barnes, his brother-in-law, was decided in Barnes' favor yesterday by a jury in Judge Wood's court. The allegation was that Barnes was unduly familiar with Barlow's wife. But while various witnesses who had been employed at Barnes' circus testified they had observed the circus proprietor hugging and kissing Mrs. Barlow, other witnesses said they never saw anything out of the way.

Barnes, they declared, was a good jollier, and in his capacity as a showman he was entitled to be familiar with the show. It was incumbent upon him to keep the artists in a good humor. He treated Mrs. Barlow no differently than he did other actresses connected with the circus, they said.

Barnes has notched one victory. There are two other suits against him, both brought by his wife. One is for an accounting of the circus business and the other a divorce action.

MISAPPROPRIATION?

STEPFATHER IS ACCUSED.

A suit in which children are arrayed against their mother and the mother against her husband is being tried in Judge Craig's court. The action, brought by Edwin L. and Joseph W. Carver, is for an accounting of the property.

After Carver died his widow was appointed guardian of the children. Carver left a snug estate and Mrs. Carver managed it until she married Frank E. Robinson in 1914. She testified yesterday that Robinson concluded to do the book-keeping himself. It is alleged he used money and property belonging to the children, then under age, the amount being named as $10,000.

About three years ago the Robinsons became estranged. Mrs. Robinson refused to turn the books over to her husband, but they were brought into court yesterday. Robinson makes a general denial.

BACK TO THE RANCH.

LOVE-SICK YOUTH EXILED.

While the father of Floyd King was laid up at a hospital, the boy went wrong. It was his first misstep, and it brought him to a bad end. Floyd, only 16 years old, met Alma Salmon, a chorus girl. He drank beer at her mother's house and practically made it his home. When King was discharged from the hospital he warned the girl's mother not to harbor her son, but he said she paid no attention to his warning.

Floyd was hard pressed for money to entertain Alma. He replenished his purse by forgery. He spent the money on the girl. At the Juvenile Court yesterday two ranchers who had employed Floyd declared they were willing to take him back as they had found him honest.

ALLEGES FALSE STATEMENTS.

Charging that false and malicious statements were published in the Insurance and Investment News under date of the 10th inst., J. E. Youtz filed suit yesterday for $50,000 libel against the News. Garner Curran, Otis J. Clifford and J. P. Robertson, publishers.

The article complained of refers to the troubles of Youtz being complicated by a suit filed by the North Los Angeles Development Company.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

LEAVES NO WILL. Although search was made, it appears that Frank Oreb, Sr., who died on the 6th inst., leaving an estate valued at $49,126.53, left no will. A petition for letters of administration was filed yesterday by A. P. Pusch. The estate consists of land in San Buenaventura, and a half interest in acreage in Los Angeles county. The real property is worth $46,000. The heirs are the sons, Frank Oreb, Jr., Peter J. Oreb and Antonio Oreb.

ELIMINATES WORD TRUST. The Hamburger Realty and Trust Company petitioned the court yesterday to change the name of the corporation to the Hamburger Realty Company. The ground stated is that the word trust is frequently used by banks which are doing and are authorized to do a trust business, whereas the Hamburger company does not carry on a banking business and does not come within the provisions of the Bank Act.

DAMAGE SUIT. Alleging that through negligence of Metropolitan Theater Mrs. Roasia Silva received a wound which resulted in blood poisoning and death, suit was filed by her husband yesterday for $50,000 damages. At the time of the accident Mrs. Silva was a patron of the motion picture show at No. 613 North Main street.

INCORPORATIONS. Mission Court Irrigation Company, incorporators M. M. Rittenbush, C. E. Davenport, W. C. Osborn, W. M. Hilliker and Emil Firth, capital stock, $6000, subscribed $500; Auto Owners' Sales Company, incorporators A. G. Heskett, Frank L. Toombs, Peter J. Mince, E. C. Peterson and Karl A. Klitten; Hersey-Byrne Company, incorporators B. E. Hersey, M. M. Byrne and F. M. Hersey.

ISSUES NEW COMPLAINTS. Assistant City Prosecutor Gardner issued new complaints yesterday against Mrs. Lena White and W. Rammage, heads of the Human Voice Shortland School, charging them with having obtained money under false pretenses. This action followed the sustaining of a demurrer to the original complaint against the defendants. According to the City Prosecutor's office several additional students have been unable to furnish the $2000 was remanded to the County Jail.

HELD TO ANSWER. Tony Gallino was held to answer to the Superior Court yesterday by Justice L. E. King on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He stabbed A. Maribret in a quarrel. The defendant, being unable to furnish the $2000 was remanded to the County Jail.

Eau de Lilac. COLOGNE CAUSES DIVORCE SUIT.

SAYS HE TRACED IT FROM BOARDER'S PILLOW.

Boarder Says It Was Not Woman's Perfume, But Taste Tonic of His Own—Interesting Insights to Stories Diversified With Socially Spectacular Features.

Eau de Lilac—or rather, the elusive scent—took Mrs. Julia A. Latimer, a traveling salesman, George Wilson, named as the Star Boarder, a policeman, neighbors and a battalion of lawyers into Judge Willis's divorce court yesterday.

All in all, it was an interesting session, one which would have tickled the literary palate of the most exacting author of social problem fiction or students of scientific investigation. Mrs. Latimer, who filed the suit, had her day yesterday. Today is Latimer's turn. He has filed a cross complaint. Sir Conan Doyle's check-capped moment in his most hyperdramatic moments had nothing on Policeman Walter Miller, now called by his comrades at arms as the "Cologne Trail."

It was a palm, still night in the bungalow section. Ha! Ha! P-a-s-t. On the gentle sphygm came a whisper. "Patrolman Miller, please pinched him and his flashlight circled the night. Dark night. A figure in the light rays. Signals. Another p-a-s-t!

Latimer, traveling salesman, suddenly returned home, is in lip to ear confab with the guard on the peak. Gunshots. Stealthy strides. The patrolman boosts Latimer through an open window. The raid is on!

In the Star Boarder's room, a patrolman Miller sniffs an aromatic sniff. Another ha-ha; a clue! Eau de Lilac! Latimer, who sniffs a sniff. The elusive scent, thick though invisible, hangs like a perfumed menace thick in the room. Patrolman Miller takes the trail. Nose to scent he follows it. Ah! In invisible hanks it hangs on the Star Boarder's Pillow.

Unleashing his instincts Miller sniffs along the sniffling trail, through the doorway, into the hall, into the bathroom, to a window. The
